About Silicon

Silicon Office Equipments, a UAE based company, is established since 1997 as System Integrator for the Information and Data Communication Industry providing Value Added Products & Services to major projects for clients all over UAE and the GCC.

The inception of Silicon Communications & Networking, a sister concern company, since 2004 as a Value Added Distributor/Reseller (VAD / VAR) enabled catering to wholesale and retail markets with products and solutions, broadening its spectrum with end-to-end Turnkey Solutions for Small to Medium Business Telecommunication and Data Communication Infrastructures, covering regions beyond UAE and GCC expanding to the entire ME and also Africa.

Our Team consists of experienced Management having long term presence in the local market, leading an aggressive Sales force who are well capable of handling all customer requirements, and alongside them is our highly qualified Post Sales Support Staff for quality services, all possessing excellent technical expertise in the areas of Design, Implementation and Servicing of Data Communication and Telecommunication requirements of small to medium businesses - even up to large scale enterprises.

Our success is imbedded in our Strategy of 'Multi-Vendor' approach for all customers' IT requirements. Our key Policy is Quality Assurance with Certified Standard Products backed with Services from Certified Professionals.

This is obvious from the list of our esteemed clients who, through us, have experienced cost effective solutions based on their requirements using state-of-the-art techniques and cutting-edge technologies and thus the Added Value to the Investment for Low Cost of Ownership and ROI.

Mission Statement:

To Provide End-to-End Turnkey Solutions with emphasis on Customer requirements through - Consultancy, Pre-Sales and Post Sales Support, Implementation and Integration, Outsourcing, Delivery, Quality Products/Services, and Certified Warranty for Data Communication and Telecommunication requirements for small to medium businesses all over the UAE, ME and Africa.

Vision Statement:

Silicon to be known as an established brand name symbolizing Quality and Added Value, for Products and Services in the IT Industry reaching out to every business of every segment of every size and of every industry, whether domestic or international, all over the globe and established branches in all over the UAE and the ME.
